

Western States Equestrian Drill Team Association

2010 Championship Series

The Western States Equestrian Drill Team Association proudly announces the 2009 WSEDTA Championship Series. This series will consist of seven WSEDTA sanctioned events across the Western United States and culminate in an end of year championship show. Scores will be taken from the various competitions and combined at the WSEDTA Championship Competition to crown an overall champion for each division. For 2010, the two highest scores from WSEDTA Class A sanctioned shows, one of which must be the Championship Competition in Santa Rosa, will be counted towards the highpoint score.

Competitions

The following WSEDTA Class A sanctioned drill team competitions will have scores counted towards the 2010 overall highpoint.

- Reno Rodeo Western States Drill Team Competition, Nevada
- PNWDTA State Competition
- WLRC State Competition
- California State Drill Team Championships, Tulare, California
- OWDTA State Competition
- WSEDTA Championship Show, Santa Rosa, California

Awards

Awards will be presented at the conclusion of the Championship show and issued to the top three teams in each division. The Championship Series Grand Champion and Division Champions will be issued pennants to adorn their team flag as well as a WSEDTA Champion flag to be used throughout the following year.

Enrollment

Enrollment in the WSEDTA Championship Series is automatic for teams that have a current WSEDTA team membership. Membership is not required to participate in any WSEDTA sanctioned shows but WSEDTA team membership is required to be entered in the WSEDTA Championship Series. Team Membership applications are due by the Reno Rodeo Drill Team Competition date, 2010.
